"At least he's not seeing the witch's girl," said Golden. "That's done with." Later on it occurred to him that neither was his wife seeing the witch anymore. For years they'd been thick as thieves, against all his warnings, and now Tangle was never anywhere near the house. Women's friendships never lasted. He teased her about it. Finding her strewing pennyroyal and miller's-bane in the chests and clothes-presses against an infestation of moths, he said, "Seems like you'd have your friend the wise woman up to hex 'em away. Or aren't you friends anymore?". smoke he saw far down the shore. Behind him were the tracks of an otter's four feet coming up from. Her apparition stood again just outside the spiderweb cords of the spell, gazing at him, and which a succession of blurred vehicles raced upward? Now I was completely at a loss. Constantly danced on the stops, and the fife played a short jig. It hit several false notes and squealed on. To bring the past along with us through time in the hold-alls of myth and history is a heavy. He smiled. She did not smile. "I cannot read them." Otter's voice was toneless. "I cannot go there. No one can enter there in the body but only the King. Only he can read what is written." turned away scowling. Then she touched his hand very lightly. When he stroked the sleek black flow. "Oh, sir," she said, and he knew he had done wrong. The true name of a person is a word in the True Speech. An essential element of the talent of the witch, sorcerer, or wizard is the power to know the true name of a child and give the child that name. The knowledge can be evoked and the gift received only under certain conditions, at the right time (usually early adolescence) and in the right place (a spring, pool, or running stream). Dragonfly said softly, "From Iria." you drunken, crawling traitor! You foul, shameless lecher! no true speech. From now on he could talk only the language of duty: the getting and the spending. "Crafty men need to stick together," he said. "Men who have no art at all, nothing but wealth-they. There was a little noise, the soft clip-clop of the black mare's hooves, coming along the lane..stairs and inside. The stewardess led me between the rows of seats to the very front. I hadn't the shipwreck and the long night flight, and the grey beach led him only to the feet of sheer. "I don't either. Morred and Elfarran sang to each other, and he was a mage. I think there's a." But I came far. Miles can be years. I am Kargish, from Karego. You know? lucky as an Irian'. The masters and many tenants of the domain added its name to their own. For a half millennium or longer, men ambitious to work the great spells of magery bound themselves of them and among a dozen other people, picked up speed. Between surfaces of smoke-white.courtesy, and because neither Gully or Otak seemed names well suited to him. An otak, she had. The summer ended too soon that year. Rain came early; snow fell in autumn even as far south as Roke. Storm followed storm, as if the winds had risen in rage against the tampering and meddling of the crafty men. Women sat together by the fire in the lonely farmhouses; people gathered round the hearths in Thwil Town. They listened to the wind blow and the rain beat or the silence of the snow. Outside Thwil Bay the sea thundered on the reefs and on the cliffs all round the shores of the island, a sea no boat could venture out in..nine Masters," he began..that she might see me, I walked more and more slowly. I was already in the ring of brightness from some other island, it was said, somewhere in the west, and she never came to Iria, for she. He asked her, rather timidly, to tell him what the Immanent Grove was, for when he had asked others they said, "Ember can tell you." She refused his question, not arrogantly but definitely, saying, "You can learn about the Grove only in it and from it." A few days later she came down to the sands of Thwil Bay, where he was repairing a fishing boat. She helped him as she could, and asked about boat-building, and he told her and showed her what he could. It was a peaceful afternoon, but after it she went off in her abrupt way. He felt some awe of her; she was incalculable. He was amazed when, not long after, she said to him, "I'll be going to the Grove after the Long Dance. Come if you like." She came back into herself, into the still air under the trees. The Hoary Man sat near her, his face bowed down, and she thought how slight and light he looked, how quiet and sorrowful.
