She sat down in her place, the stool by the oil lamp of Old Iria, asking her to come in by the back door and maybe make a poultice or sing a chant to the reeking tower at Samory. Roke, unsealed and entered the cave, defeated the Dark Woman, and took her place. In about 650, the sisters Elehal and Yahan of Roke, Medra the Finder, and other people of the Hand founded a school on Roke as a center where they might gather and share knowledge, clarify the disciplines, and exert ethical control over the practices of wizardry. With the Hand as its agent on other islands, the school's reputation and influence grew rapidly. Berry went and fetched his sister, after he had heard Sunbright's tale at the tavern, and San's. At that the Changer looked at him, and after pondering said soberly, "Doorkeeper, what have you in mind?" He stood there a long time before he went down through the high grasses and the sparkweed. At the foot of the hill he came into a lane. It led him through farmlands that looked well kept, though very lonesome. He looked for a lane or path leading to the town, but there never was one that went eastward. Not a soul was in the fields, some of which were newly ploughed. No dog barked as he went by. Only at a crossroads an old donkey grazing a stony pasture came over to the wooden fence and leaned its head out,
