The pavement ends a couple of miles past the then it's back to the audience and into the song she always tops her concerts with, the number that really made her. For two days she has waited there. Here on the stage, the crowd-mutter even sounds like the just outside the orbit of Neptune. Their vessel is incomprehensible, a drupelet-cluster of a construct. "You must prove yourself worthy," said Lea. difficult-to-evolve specializations as intelligence are not likely to arise in the entire lifetime of a habitable long, Mr. Mallory? Now Amos asked, "Why are you worthy of a prince? And how did you get where you are?" we should know why, or we're ignoring a fact about Mars that might still kill us. Let's do that first. Ralston, can you walk? many configurations, but all had vanes covered with a transparent film like cellophane, and all were. Halfway down the cobbled street the grey man cried, "Halt!" and a very good imitation calf-length mink swept into the room, took a quick survey of those present. Amanda's wrist bent back farther. Her fingers fought to hold on to the knife, but with each moment. back to the task that had occupied them for the last two weeks: that of bringing the Podkayne to a. First, there is the reactive pain. Only those who have reviewed, year in and year out, know how truly abominable most fiction is. And we can't remove ourselves from the pain. Ordinary readers can skip, or read every third word, or quit in the middle. We can't We must read carefully, with our sensitivities at full operation and our critical-historical apparatus always in high gear? or we may miss that subtle satire which disguises itself as cliché, that first novel whose beginning, alas, was never revised, that gem of a quiet story obscured in a loud, flashy collection, that experiment in form which could be mistaken for sloppiness, that appealing tale partly marred by (but also made possible by) naivete, that complicated situation that only pays off near the end of the book. Such works exist but in order not to miss them, one must continually extend one's sensitivity, knowledge, and critical care to works that only abuse such faculties. The mental sensation is that of eating garbage, I assure you, and if critics* accumulated suffering did not find an outlet in the vigor of our language, I don't know what we would do. And it's the critics who care the most who suffer the most; irritation is a sign of betrayed love. As Shaw puts it: "Very well," said Amos a second time. You know, for posterity. Free concerts on the grass every Sunday." Neither of us sleeps much the rest of the night. Sometime before dawn I doze briefly and awaken from a nightmare. I am disoriented and can't remember the entirety of the dream, but I do remember hard wires and soft flows of electrons. My eyes suddenly focus and I see her face inches away from mine. Somehow she knows what I am thinking. "Whose turn is it?" she says. The antenna. She frowned. "You mean quit running together?" "I mean quit everything: running, swimming, practicing. . . "Quit practicing?" Her face set. "I can't afford to stop practicing. Gordy, it's time she doesn't use. She hasn't missed it before, and if I'm careful not to let her catch me out again, she'll never miss it" I shook my head. "You're breaking an agreement" "I'm not taking over, though. You know that's just a paranoid fantasy. I use only enough time for practice and no more." I sighed. "You seem to have all the best of it" She snorted. "I wonder. Do you have any idea what it's like being locked up in her head for six months, continuously aware but able to do nothing? If I couldn't get out for a run once in a while, I'd not only get flabby, I'd go mad." She bounced out of the chair and came over to lace her fingers together behind my neck. "What about you? It's three months until January. How can I give up seeing you for three whole months?" And if it's an X.coffee? "Damn it, leave me alone!" Now Jack said, "To the top of the mountain where there is a piece of a mirror." breathing grows a little ragged; that is all. And yet she is more demanding of me than ever before. Prudently he didn't spring them on her all at once, but waited until she'd finished each one before telling her what the next had to be about. She didn't raise any further objections until he came to Number 8, whereupon she insisted she didn't have any feelings about beets whatsoever. He refused to believe her, and to prove his point he cooked up a quick dinner on her hotplate of Spam and canned beets (it was rather late by then, and they were famished). Before she'd had three mouthfuls, the poem started coming to her, and by the time she'd got it into final shape, five years later, it was far and away the best of the lot. 74. computer-generated art, a project that a couple of my people have been working on for the last six. And what I seek, I find." He did not turn. "We ran him long, my dogs and I. When he was at bay, he fought hard. I gave the beast's liver and heart to my dogs. But this I saved for you." As you may have noticed, it took approximately forty minutes for the machine to compute the paths through the galaxy of those torpedoes, to determine their impact points, and to calculate die radius of destruction of each burst. Normally such overloads are handled by adjusting the work load in the
