Common people, even uncommon ones, tend to romanticize reality, often to fantastic extremes, and invariably in these days romanticism acquires religious overtones. In the present instance a perfectly practical undertaking has been interpreted, on the one hand, as an attempt on the part of the King to get high enough above the ground so he can shoot an arrow into Heaven and, on the other hand, as an attempt on the part of the local citizens, especially the rich ones, to provide themselves with an avenue into Heaven. The two interpretations have somehow intermingled and become one. The absurdity of the second is self-evident and unworthy of closer scrutiny. The absurdity of the first is also self-evident, but for the record Td like to cite a few pertinent facts..Now Amos looked over his shoulder too and saw that the white disk was going slowly down..He redesigned the whole device, built a prototype and tested it, tore it down, redesigned, built.with.somehow be changed to an X chromosome, a male will ipso facto be changed into a female..and his hands were grained tike wood..He looked at the children.
