Beagle's case) the nostalgic wistfulness which belongs to fantasy per se rather than the publisher's chuckle. We made the cold dash across the beach to the cabin, picking up our clothes on the way. Inside we huddled together wishing for a fire and toweling ourselves dry while the polycarpets ran rainbows of browns and electric blues around our feet. In the course of it I got my arms around Selene. I pulled her against me. She met my mouth hungrily, but when I started pulling her toward the fake animal pelt in front of the fireplace, she rammed me with a sharp hipbone and wiggled loose. Suddenly Nina's face contorted as she launched herself at him, her fingers splayed and aiming at his eyes. She clamped down on the bench all the time until now.
