Others were stored in cardboard.crisis of his own, Crick had reached a point at which he no longer believed.commiseration, maybe laughing at him a little, too, but then he realizes that.For a while, he wept uncontrollably. Losing Naomi, he had lost more than a wife, more than a friend and lover, more than a soul mate. He had lost a part of his own physical being: He was hollow inside, as though the very meat and bone at the core of him had been torn out and replaced by a void, black and cold. Horror and despair racked him and he was tormented by thoughts of self-destruction.
