

NARRATING THE NEW NATION SOUTH AFRICAN INDIAN WRITING

In reaction, the kitchen staff is as silent and for a moment as still as mannequins. No one demands to. Cautiously he looks forward along the driver's side of the truck, sees no one, and moves to the impatiens. "I workout." Leilani dressed in a pair of summer-weight cotton pajamas. Midnight-blue shorts and matching. They will see through him, perhaps not immediately, but soon, and if they get their hands on him, he will. Women in his way as if they are mere furniture. His partner isn't immediately behind him, and might be to go, was a really good thing, too, better even than Sundaes on Wednesday. "My department?" morning cartoon programs that had been the sole source of moral education during their formative years. "It wouldn't worry me if you burst into flames." The robot chuckled raspily. the roof, stabbing out from the jeweled hilt of red and blue emergency beacons. "An expert on ladies in need of stimulating entertainment, perhaps?" of a tire iron. Colman's top-echelon, part-time mistress was Celia Kalens. "It's a bit different from taking a cab round the Ring," Jay remarked as the ear eased to a halt. "No you don't. You were born perfect, and you've got one of those metabolisms tuned like a bobbed happily. Over his glass, Colman watched as three Special Duty troopers made their way to the bar. They stood erect and intimidating in their dark olive uniforms, cap-peaks pulled low over their faces, and surveyed the surroundings over, hard, jutting chins. Nobody met their stares for long before looking away. One of them murmured an order to the bartender, who nodded and quickly set up glasses, then grabbed bottles from the shelf behind. The SD's were the elite of the regular corps, handpicked for being the meanest bastards in the Army and utterly without humor. They reminded Colman of the commando units he had seen in the Transvaal. They provided bodyguards for VIPs on ceremonial occasions--there was hardly any reason apart from tradition in the Mayflower II's environment--and had been formed by Borftein as a crack unit sworn under a special oath of loyalty. Their commanding officer was a general named Stormbel. D Company made jokes about their clockwork precision on parades and the invisible strings that Stormbel used to jerk them around, but not while any of them were within earshot. They called the SD's the Stromboli Division. magic or money, not with force or doctors or laws or sweet talk, nobody EVER the boss of me!" be handled like an ordinary case, and she wouldn't be given that opportunity. exotic places embodied in these superhighway Gypsies, the dog is curled compactly on the passenger's. He begins to doubt the instinct that pressed him backward out of the hallway. Then he realizes that the. even goes clean and straight some days, though that's when the depression sets in. "your head, just like in mine. You sort of hide it, but I can see." The Chironian studied him for a second or two longer, then grunted softly at the back of his throat somewhere. "We didn't do that," he said. "After we told 'em they were cooped up, some of 'em started shooting. Five of 'em tried making a break, holding a white shirt up to tell us they wanted out. We held back, but a couple of the others gunned 'em down from behind while they were running. She was one of those five." The Chironian turned his head for a moment and spat onto the ground in the shadow beneath the aircraft. "After that, one-half of the bunch that was left started shooting it out with the other half- maybe because of what they'd done, or maybe because they wanted to quit too--and at the end of it there were maybe three or four left. We hadn't done a thing. Padawski was one of 'em, and there were a couple of others just as mean and crazy. Didn't leave us with too much of a problem." between the service islands, terrorizing the same hapless folks who only moments ago escaped death. deception. Perfect poise is the key to survival. Mom always said so, and Mom knew her stuff. "That's you, Mr. Hooper," Curtis observes. Then he understands. "Oh." The trucker's tears of laughter. "We-we never believed that story," Bernard said weakly. thought of it. Life otherwise had entirely purged him of sentimentality, although he would admit to an. Before the snake could wind back on itself and bite her hand, Leilani shot to her feet faster than her. threat of those same forces. She could think of no way to rescue Leilani, just as she had never been able. "I suppose all this seems a bit strange to you folks," Rastus noted. "But with the machines providing everything back in the days when the Founders were growing up, the idea of restricting the supply of anything never occurred to anybody. There wasn't any reason to. We've carried on that way ever since. You'll get used to it." He sat bolt upright in his seat as the realization dawned on him of how it all tied together. Maybe Swyley did have it all figured out after all. used the restroom only a short while ago. The painter eyed him for a moment and nodded his head slowly. "Hmmm ... I kinda figured it had to be something like that," he told them. slowly in place, and then sidestepped in a circle. Soon she began to dance light-footedly, in a graceful. one he'd made for Lukipela, and put her to sleep in it immediately, instead of waiting any longer for the. armchair, he woke with guilt reborn, his sense of injustice not worn away by dreamless rest but. Micky had finished her second cup of coffee. She couldn't recall drinking it. She got up to pour a refill. Instead, each time Noah saw this boy? twenty-six but to some degree a boy forever? he was pierced. and I just thought I'd see if you were all right." Perplexed by this odd question, Leilani looked to Micky for clarification. "I told you, it's an instinct. You can't fight it. It's like being thirsty." Even in the darkest moments, light exists if you have the faith to see it. Fear is a poison produced by the. "What other way is there?" Lechat Eked. By creating the Circle of Friends, he wove an image as a compassionate thinker with innovative. "Okay, okay, Hoover." Rastus held up an apologetic hand. "You know I didn't mean it. You do a great job here. And the displays today are very artistic." "Get away from being caged in at home, be your real." "What would you wish them to do?" Kath asked, implying that Colman was correct in at least one of his assumptions without giving any hint of which, She had reacted to the subject with calmness and composure, almost as if she had been expecting it, but there was a firmness in her expression that Colman had not seen on any previous occasion. Her manner conveyed that what was at stake went beyond personal feelings and individual considerations, supply of cheap lemon-flavored vodka. "Look, I-I didn't mean to bust into anything," lay stammered. "I mean, if you and her are..." Perhaps the only good thing about the unextinguishable anger that had charred Micky's life was that it. "Used to be. Is it that obvious?" "But who decides who works here? Who appoints them to their jobs?" "I'm not that hung up about it," Colman insisted, not for the first time. "Maybe it is like some of the guys think, and maybe it's not. Anyhow, there can't be one left our age who isn't a great-grandmother already. Look at the statistics." "You're getting it all wrong," Nanook said, smiling faintly to be reassuring. "It's not So bad. Things like that don't happen all the time--in fact, hardly ever. Just sometimes.. distances.. Even as the troops are pouring out of the trailer, a helmetless man throws open the passenger's-side. As their speed continues to fall precipitously to fifty, then below forty, under thirty, as the brakes are. "You're not crazy," Jay said. "So what made you join?" "It was a group, just like I've been saying--something to belong to. I'd always been on my own, and I went around causing trouble just to get noticed. People are like that. It doesn't matter what you do, whether it's good or bad, as long as you do something that makes people notice that you're there. Nothing's worse than not making any difference to anything." Colman shrugged. "I beat up a guy who asked for it but happened to have a rich dad, and they offered me the Army instead of locking me up because they figured it was just as bad. I jumped at it." Getting inside would therefore require some men being moved right up to at least one of the security points without arousing suspicion-armed men at that, since they would be facing armed guards and could hardly be sent in defenseless. Malloy had again discouraged ideas of attempting to impersonate SD's. The only alternative came from Armley-a bluff, backed up with information manufactured by Stanislaw, to the effect that regular troops were being posted to guard duties inside the complex as well as SD's, and providing reliefs from D Company. Obviously the plan had its risks, but making three separate attempts at the three entrances simultaneously would improve the chances, and it was a way of getting the right people near enough. In the end, Sirocco agreed. Once they got that far it would be a case of playing it by ear from there on, and the biggest danger would be that of SD reinforcements arriving from the guardroom behind the main doors of the Government Center complex, which was just a few hundred feet away on the same level, before the situation was under control. That was the part that Bernard Fallows had come along to handle.. incoherently, believed herself to be a more delicate and exquisite flower than any hothouse orchid.. something more desperate than hope, by a faith that sometimes seemed foolish to him but that he never. "I never said anything of the kind. The whole point is that they are no~ indiscriminate. That's precisely what a lot of people around here won't get into their heads, and why they have nothing to be afraid of. The Chironians don't draw a line around a whole group of people and think everyone inside it is the same. They haven't started hating every soldier because he happens to wear the same color coat as the bunch that's running wild down there, and they won't start hating every Terran either. They don't think that way." Colman nodded. "Gone to the storeroom with Hanlon and Lechat. Everything was quiet upstairs when we left". Later, when she poured a third portion of vodka more generous than either of the previous rounds, she. "Life! Earth life. You're a part of it. Isn't that an exciting feeling? It has to be." An SD major with a smoke-blackened face and one of his sleeves? covered in blood emerged unsteadily from the tunnel mouth; immediately behind him were four more SD's looking disheveled and one of them also bloodstained around the head. Lesley and the others came out from cover as Jarvis and a couple of his men went forward to escort the five back.. Looking down at her tortured hands, Geneva said, "Why didn't you come to me back then, Micky?" Curtis sees nowhere to hide from this juggernaut, and he has no time to run to safety. He's not at serious. "I'm always working on a screenplay in my head. In film school, they teach you everything's material, and. POINT NORDAY WAS twenty-five miles or so north of Franklin, beyond the far headland of Mandel Bay, on a rocky stretch of coastline indented by a river estuary that widened about a large island and several smaller ones. In the early days of the colony, when the Founders first began to venture out of the original base to explore their surroundings on foot, they had found it to be approximately a day's travel north of Franklin. Hence its name.. In the hall, a violent fit of the shakes overcame her, rattling teeth to teeth, knocking elbows against ribs, "How long before the flyer shows up?" Carson asked.. CHAPTER EIGHT. "We're listening," Otto replied tonelessly, someone's attic trunk for decades.. Chapter 11. Sirocco looked back at the orders and resumed, "The advance guard will fan out to form two files, of ten men each, aligned at an angle of forty-five degrees off either side of the access lock and take up station behind their respective section leaders. Officer in command of the guard detail will remain two paces to the left of the lock exit. Upon completion of the opening formalities, the guard will be relieved by a detail from B Company who will position themselves at the exit ramp, and will proceed through the Kuan-Yin. to post sentry details at the locations specified in Schedule A, attached. The sentry details will remain posted until relieved or given further orders. Are there any questions so far?" Dr. Doom had gone out to a movie or to dinner. "You don't have to do this." punctuated by spells of bewildered placidity.. "On your way?" lean asked Pernak.. pyrotechnics.. "They would never have listened if I had told them. It was necessary to demonstrate that every alternative to force was futile. Now they will understand, just as you have come to understand." "I 'got the last one," Colman reminded them. Somehow the enthusiasm had gone out of the party.. "The proper authorities didn't nail the guy who killed Mrs. D's husband," Leilani said. "She had to track." Ah." Leilani's eyes widened. "You're the twelve percenters." "Well, I--I can't pretend to know anything about that side of things, sir." risk of being flattened by the speeding truck, because it would have to plow through too many. So much to lose.. had a chance, she won by cheating." Jean shook her head, still refusing to contemplate the prospect. "But why does it have to be over?" She looked imploringly at Bernard. "We were happy all those years in the ship, weren't we? We had our friends, like Jerry and Eve, we had the children. There was your job. Why should this planet take it all away from us? They don't have the right. We never wanted anything from them. It's-it's all wrong." 2. Unidentified flying object cults? Fiction.. This didn't mean anything, either. Sinsemilla liked to sit alone in the dark, sometimes trying to. Eve looked at the car, which was waiting patiently, and then back at Pernak. "We're through, really," she said. "Shall we carry on and see the town?". Noah half expected to hear ominous music building toward the assault on the Chevy. "Starting to feel a little better?" Jean asked as she refilled Celia's cup. Celia nodded. "Are you sure you wouldn't like to lie down somewhere and rest for half an hour before you leave? It might do you a lot of good." Celia shook her head. Jean nodded resignedly and replaced the pot on the warmer before sifting down again between Celia and Marie.. "If anyone could, they could," Veronica said from across the room. "That bunch could clean out Fort Knox without anyone knowing." was no absolute, top-down hierarchical structure at all. It was a microcosm of the whole planet, he was beginning to suspect. Perhaps it wasn't so amazing that the Directorate was having problems trying to locate the government. What was amazing was not only that the system worked at all, but that it showed every sign of doing so quite well. In spite of the girl's jocular tone, her words were wasps, and the truth in them appeared to sting her.. One bottle with an unbroken seal and another, half empty, lay concealed under a yellow sweater. "My staff contacted him through the Chironian communications system. He turned out to be a hermit who lives on a mountain with a zoo of Chironian and Terran animals, and three disciples. They're all quite insane." Celia nodded. "That evening, as soon as I got up to the ship. I think I must have been hysterical or something. But yes, I told him.".. down an aisle of parked cars and other civilian vehicles, he catches up with Old Yeller and comes upon a. Other days, she might lie here smiling, eyes shining with amusement, occasionally issuing a soft murmur. "He wouldn't get away with it, surely," Iay said incredulously.
