If there were any spells woven about that hill or the bay he now saw opening before it, they were gossamer to him, transparent. Nothing blurred his eyes or challenged his will as he flew over the bay, over the little town and a half-finished building on the slope above it, to the top of the high green hill. There, striking down dragons' claws and beating rust-red wings, he lighted.. "The woman with you defies the Rule of Roke," the Windkey said. "She must leave.
