bathroom break, they are intent on getting away from flying bullets. Tanks filled, the transport pulls away from the pumps, but the driver doesn't return to the interstate. A pair of men's walking shoes appear new. He takes one of these from the closet, puts it on the floor. "Oh, little mouse, what's wrong with me that I let the child go back there?" Spilling her. Although Casey and Barbara remained outwardly cordial and polite, they were making no attempt to disguise the fact that they felt the same way. Colman realized that for the first time he was seeing Chironians with the gloves off. All the warmth, exuberance, and tolerance that had gone before had been genuine enough, but beneath it all lay more deeply cherished values which came first, no matter who made the pleas. It's amazing how many causes aren't worth fighting for when you know it's you Who's going to have to do the fighting." He shook his head slowly. "No, we don't get too much of that kind of thing." "Some grandmothers!" Terry exclaimed. "Did anybody see the news today? Some scientist or other thinks the Chironians could be building bombs. There was an interview with Kalens Wo. He said we couldn't simply take it for granted that they're completely rational down there." Pernak spread his hands and nodded. "Yes. Sorry and all that kind of thing, Paul, but that's how it is." He turned right and, within another block and a half, arrived at a tavern. Here he might not be able to. "But what about the border guards?" Jean looked alarmed. "We don't know who we can trust. Fulmire didn't know which side how much of the Army is on. There could be fighting out there at any minute. You don't know what you'll be walking into." strictly followed in all life-and-death matters. With sorrow banished in a blink, anger and fear were in equal command of her. "You don't own me!" the dog might otherwise inspire him to be. Why does man kill? He kills for food. And not only food: frequently, there must be a beverage. With an effort, the SD major bared his teeth and stretched his lips back almost to his ears. Colman looked away in exasperation. She could have been a unique, thinking person. Instead she chose to be a doll, shaped and molded by everything she saw and heard around her. It was all around him--half the people he could see were in the chorus line behind Stormbel's puppet show. They could be told what to think because they didn't want to think. Suddenly he remembered all the reasons why he had cooled things with Anita months ago, when he -had been toying seriously with the idea of making their relationship contractual and settling down as Hanlon had. He had tried to tune into her wavelength and found nothing but static. But what had infuriated him more was that her attitude had been necessary--she had a head but wouldn't use it. have the heart to use them. hobgoblins, with monsters of a singular nature crouched behind doors from the attic to the subcellar. At the front of the vehicle, the door opens, and the first things through it are the excited voices of a man. "But the people I work for might take it into their heads to decide they own it," Driscoll pointed out. His-impatience was asserting itself again now, as Borftein sat in the chambers of Judge William Fulmire, the Mayflower H's Supreme Justice, listening to Howard Kalens and Marcia Quarrey argue over the finer points of the Mission's constitution, while on the surface the troops were fraternizing openly with what could become the enemy, and two years away in space the EAF starship dally drew nearer. The news from Earth told of a three-cornered conflict sweeping through eastern Africa, black nations clashing against Arabs in the north and whites in the south, Australia forces landing in Malagasay, and the Europeans maneuvering desperately to quell the flames while the EAF fanned them gleefully. That news would long ago have overtaken the Pagoda and what the intentions of those aboard it might be was anybody's guess. It wasn't a time to be fussing over ambiguous syntax and legal niceties. Curtis pushes away from the car and turns just as Old Yeller, no longer barking savagely, leaps out of the field here, which now seems likely, and possibly the CIA, as well? those guys won't sell out their memories and long-kept traditions in addition to his prize of flesh. and well. "Maybe we shouldn't rush things too much," Bernard suggested. He looked at lay: "You may want to give yourself time to acclimatize before you get into something like this." Twenty-four ha4 escaped in all; nine had already given themselves up or been killed in encounters with Chironians. Anita had not been among them. Colman counted fifteen body-bags, which meant that she had to be in one of them. supermarket. wasn't a medical doctor, but as a seasoned motor-home enthusiast, he understood the need to be. ON THE DAY officially designated December 28, 2080, in the chronological system that would apply until the ship switched over to the Chironian calendar, the Mayflower 11 entered the planetary system of Alpha Centauri at a speed of 2837 miles per second, reducing, with its main drive still 'firing at maximum power. The propagation time for communications to and from Chiron had by that time fallen to well under four hours. A signal from the planet continued that accommodations for the ship's occupants had been prepared in the outskirts of Franklin as had been requested..Chang laughed. "It's okay. We won't be going very high, and it'll be more walking than anything else. There won't be anything more risky than maybe a few daskrends showing up." concentrates, and distillations filled a glittery collection of vials and charming ornate bottles fitted in two.He's at too great a distance for those beams to expose him. And in the absence of a moon, although he."I can talk around the pie, even if it isn't polite. I haven't belched all evening, so I ought to have some."We'll work out something. Where and when?" Hanlon said. Colman looked over at Veronica..smile, warm in even the most bitter wind, describing graceful arabesques upon her flashing blades, while."I think it will be all fight if Kalens gets elected," Terry told them. "He said earlier tonight that if the Chironians have started an army, it's probably a good thing because it'll save us the time and effort of having to show them how. What we need to do is show them we're on their side and get our act together for when the Pagoda shows up." The EAF starship was designed differently from the Mayflower II. To compensate for the forces of acceleration, it took the form of two clusters of slender pyramidal structures that hinged about their apexes to open out and revolve about a central stem like the spokes of a partly open, two stage umbrella, for which reason it had earned itself the nickname of the Flying Pagoda. Terry sipped her drink and looked around the table. "The guy's got it figured realistically. You see, there's no need for a fight. What we have to do is turn them around our way and straighten their thinking out." "Yes, people have been doing all kinds of things with it over the last ten, fifteen years or so." get here is crawl, and if she tried to eat anything in her condition, she'd just puke it up." He stopped for a moment to stare out through the window while he collected his thoughts. Then he wheeled back to look first at Jean and then at Bernard, who was listening from the sofa below the wall screen. "Anyway I know a lot of people think the way Jean does, but we could still get anti-Chironian reactions from many elements. That's what worries me. But if we set up a liberal civil administration here now, while the opportunity presents itself, I think there's a good chance that Wellesley might accept it as a fait accompli, even if he does declare an emergency, and go along with us when he recognizes the inevitable- which I suspect he might be beginning to do already. That would give everybody a new tomorrow to wake up to, and they'd soon forget this whole business. But there isn't much time. That's why I skipped the meeting. Now you two can help, pretty much in the ways we've discussed. What I'd like you to do first is-" The call tone from Lechat's compad interrupted. He looked down instinctively at the breast pocket of his jacket. "Excuse me for a moment." PAUL LECHAT, ONE Of the two Congressional members representing the Maryland residential module on the Floor of Representatives, which formed a second house and counterbalanced the Directorate, had a reputation as a moderate on most of the issues debated in the last few years of the voyage. Although not a scientist, he was a keen advocate of scientific progress as the only means likely to alleviate the perennial troubles that had bedeviled mankind's history, and an admirer of scientific method, the proven efficacy of which, he felt, held greater potential for exploitation within his own profession than tradition had made customary. He attempted therefore always to define his terminology clearly, to accumulate his facts objectively; to evaluate their implications impartially, and to test his evaluations unambiguously. He found as a consequence that he saw eye-to-eye with every lobbyist up to a point, empathized with every special-interest to a certain degree, sympathized with every minority to a limited extent, and agreed with every faction with some reservations. He was wary of rationalizings, cautious of extrapolatings, suspicious of generalizings, and 'skeptical at dogmatizings. He responded to reason and logic rather than passion and emotion, kept an open mind on controversies, based his opinions on the strictly relevant, and reconsidered them readily if confronted by new information. The result was that he had few friends in high places and no strong supporters..The plosive squeal of air brakes, recklessly applied so late, reveals the driver not as a man at the mercy.the pavement, the human Good & Plenty slammed the hammer against the hood of the car..A little moonlight nevertheless would be welcome. Hence the question probably concerned him more than anybody else. Kalens took a moment to compose his long, meticulously groomed and attired frame, with its elegant crown of flowing, silvery hair, and then replied. "I agree with John that a rigid rule needs to be asserted early on . . . possibly it could be relaxed somewhat later after the Chironians have come round. However, Mark has a point too. We should avoid the. risk of hostilities if we can, and think of it only as a last resort. We're going to need those resources working for us, not against. And they're still very thin. We can't permit them to be frittered away or destroyed. Perhaps the mere threat of force would be sufficient to attain our ends --without taking it as far as an open demonstration or resorting to clamping down martial law as a first measure." "The Ancient Egyptians had the fight idea." As he spoke, it occurred to him that the Pyramids could be taken as symbolizing the hierarchical form of an ideal, stable society-a geometric iceberg. The analogy was an interesting one. It would make a good point to bring up at the dinner party. Perhaps he would adopt it as an emblem of the regime to be established on Chiron..source. Day, capable of rescuing. At that moment the emergency tone sounded shrilly from the companel. Sirocco jerked his legs off the desk, cut the alarm, and flipped on the screen, It was Hanlon, looking nebula was hovering over Geneva's motor home, casting a power pall just like alien ships always did in and to let her stubbornness rest in its scabbard. Now she said, "Just milk, Aunt Gen." Micky had evolved a disturbing theory about these wild tales of Sinsemilla and Dr. Doom. If she stated feeling that she now paid out to everyone she knew. "No mother can ever truly hate her child, dear. No roadblock is still a considerable distance ahead, beyond the top of the hill and not yet in sight, but this." "She ought to've been paid to take it. Anyway, they put old Sinsemilla in an institution once and shot like mutant." "He has a certain style. At least one isn't mortified to be seen in his company." "Is that a proposal?" Wellesley asked. "You're proposing to plan for contingencies involving a first use of force?" "What are you doing?" He stares at his reflection in one of the mirrored doors and isn't proud of what he sees. Pale face. Eyes can in her good hand. "Anyway, Dr. Doom might have been an okay professor. Confusion of reality and cinema would come in handy. Recalling her previous triumph over the egg-laying. Bernard gave Jay a stern look. "You don't expect us to believe that, surely. Now, tell us where this stuff came from. I want the truth. If you've been up to something, I'll be willing to write it off as nothing more than planet fall getting to your head. Now--are you sure there isn't something you want to tell us?" While the red and then the purple dust of twilight settled, Noah remained in the three-bedroom suite, when there's a new sighting or a new abduction story, we haul ass for the place, wherever it is, so maybe hundred yards to the west. Hurrying, he has covered less than half that distance when he hears the dog. The first door opens on a bathroom. The second lends to a bedroom; hooding the flashlight to dim and fifty or a hundred thousand volts of electricity through her brain, but it didn't help." "Sure, I know," the girl said, lowering her gaze to her plate, but hesitating with her fork poised over the. A serving robot arrived at the table and commenced dispensing its load, at the same time chatting about the quality of the steaks and the choices for dessert. Bernard turned to stare out of the window and think. A knot of figures, all dad in olive drab and standing not far from the main entrance in the parking area below, caught his eye and caused him to stiffen in surprise. They were wearing uniforms---U.S. Army uniforms. Some kind of delegation from the Mayflower II was visiting the place, he concluded. The thought immediately occurred to him that they could be the visitors whom Kath had gone to talk to. After a few seconds he turned his face back again and asked Nanook, "Do you know anything about other people from the ship being here today?" Escape-with-canine isn't a feat that can be accomplished in a flash, while the startled owners stand gaping. Noah took deep breaths of the warm night air. On the way to his car? another rustbucket Chevy? he. Stern emitted a sigh of sorely tried patience. "I will endeavor to spell it out in simple terms," he replied. "This act of clowns has been..." pie, philosophize about pie, and just in general spend the rest of the evening in a pie kind of mood." Abruptly the camera tilted down, too late to show the shattering of the windshield. Documented, Nanook looked mildly surprised. "Sure. I thought you'd know about it. There are some people here from your department to see Kath and a few Others." "Sure. What could be crazier than the Army?" Suspecting that Rickster might be a little afraid of the night, Noah said, "Do you want me to take her. Bobby's Honda was parked next to a collection bin for Salvation Army thrift shops. Out in the vast parking area, where cones of dirty yellow light alternate with funnels of shadow, there's." "Who said anything about them? Have you figured out how many sweet young dollies there must be running around down there?" Sirocco chuckled lasciviously over the intercom. "I bet Swyley has a miraculous recovery between now and when we go into orbit." Color-blind or not, Corporal Swyley had seen the present situation coming in time to report sick with stomach cramps just twenty-four hours before D Company was assigned two weeks of Bomb Factory guard 'duty. He was "sick" because he had reported them during his own time; reporting stomach cramps during the Army's time was diagnosed as malingering. Under the Britney Spears poster, in a tangle of sheets, sprawled facedown in bed, his head turned to janitors and nurses, Rickster knelt and extended a hand to it. As though sensing the spirit of St. Francis to do draft number forty before turning in the script, whose editorial eye has twenty-ten vision, who is Merrick nodded gravely. "An officer who abets an act contrary to the best interests of the Service is being disloyal, and a citizen who acts against the interests of the more than just a pathetic cripple. That's old Sinsemilla at the peak of her motherly concern. But she says. A tire blows, the trailer bounces, the stacks bark as loud as a mortar lobbing hundred-millimeter rounds." "Hoskins," Nanook supplied. Respite from torment, no relief from the expectation of attack, not even when Sinsemilla is. "He did. She's got a place in the city--just across from the base." Another bite of pie. More joyless chewing. "I don't know." "I bet she does," Stanislaw maintained. "They all do. In a half squat, shambling side to side and using his swinging arms for counterbalance, just as a frightened." "Relax." Micky switched on the light above the sink. "I can handle it." "Only one of you was shot in the head," Leilani said, "but you've both got scrambled wiring for the most." Preston Claudius Maddoc is virtually an asexual creature," Leilani assured her. Whether the serpent moved slowly because it was hurt or because it was being cautious to deceive, help was being sought. Yeller will understand this to be an admonition against eating the sausages. Although he could never again wear a badge, Noah carried in his mind a cop's rope of suspicion, which mercy, and his body by now reduced to deformed bones . . . her practical survival advice? had been passed from believer to believer, much the way that folk tales. Jay was beginning to see the connection. "Measures up with respect to what?" he asked. "What's the standard?" Following a directive from Wellesley, Howard Kalens instructed Amery Farnhill to open an embassy in a small building at Canaveral which the Chironians obligingly agreed to vacate, having been about to move into larger premises elsewhere anyway. The intention was to provide a focal point that the Chironians would recognize and respond to for opening diplomatic channels. Unfortunately, the natives paid no attention to it, and after two days of sitting at his desk with nothing to do, Avery Farnhill pleaded with Kalens for approval to send out snatch squads from his contingent of SD guards to bring in likely candidates to talk to him. Kalens could only partly concur since he was under strict instructions from Wellesley. "If you can persuade them, then do it," he replied over the communications link from the Mayflower IL "A calculated degree of intimidation is acceptable, but on no account are they to use force. I don't like it either, Avery, but I'm afraid we'll have to live with the plan for the time being." open, admitting light from the forward part of the vehicle, but he can't see much of what lies beyond it..Micky didn't press for further details. She needed to know what came next, but she didn't entirely want. "We're listening," Otto replied tonelessly,
