The coppers weren't decently in a bag, even. Irioth had to hold out his hand, and the cattleman laid out six copper pennies in it, one by one. "Now then! That's fair and square!" he said, expansive. "And maybe you'll be looking at my yearlings over in the Long Pond pastures, in the next day or so." Under the huddle of the grey cloak his hands found only a huddle of clothes and dry bones and a broken staff..or another he came at last to Geath in the Ninety Isles..Island was, they told him, the heart of Earthsea. That was no life for a merchant's son who was to inherit and manage his father's properties.The curer checked the girths, eased a strap, and got up in the saddle, not expertly, but the hinny made no objection. She turned her long, creamy-white nose and beautiful eyes to look at her rider. He smiled. Gift had never seen him smile..was years ago, years ago, in the sunlight. It was raining. He had fed the chickens, and come back.than I, did this for me. Eh? The Windkey, the Chanter, the Changer,.He let that sink in for a while, and then continued softly, "And to work the spell of semblance on you, to make it so complete and deep that the Masters of Roke will see you as a man and nothing else, to do that, I too must know your name." He paused again. As he talked it seemed to him that everything he said was true, and his voice was moved and gentle as he said, "I could have known it long ago. But I chose not to use those arts. I wanted you to trust me enough to tell me your name yourself.".eagerly imparted, had nothing to do with his power or with any true power. Mining and refining.happened. When she came out it was all.come.".Ever since he had walked on the green hill above the town and had seen the bright shadows in the grass, his heart had been easy. He was expectant, full of a sense of great strangeness, but not frightened. He stood still and looked at the people who came to meet him..to him, "Did you ever hear of Roke Island?". "I talked to him last night," Golden said. "He said to me that there are certain natural gifts.good bed; he's tired. I'll sleep in the barn and be off in the morning. "But the spirit of rivalry worked in the boy as he grew to be a man. It's a strong spirit on Roke: always to do better than the others, always to be first... The art becomes a contest, a game. The end becomes a means to an end less than itself... There was no man there more greatly gifted than this man, yet if any did better than he in any thing, he found it hard to bear. Tracing descent both through the male and the female lines, and intermarrying with various noble houses of the Archipelago, the royal house embraced five principalities: the House of Enlad, the oldest, tracing direct descent from Morred and Serriadh; the Houses of Shelieth, Ea, and Havnor; and lastly the House of Ilien.
