"The Chironians didn't kill Howard," Celia said. "I did." A silence descended like steel doors slamming down around the room. Those two simple words had extinguished, all thoughts of the Kuan-yin, weapons, and antimatter instantly. Every head turned disbelievingly to Celia as she sat staring ahead. Lechat rose from his chair and walked slowly across to stand beside the table; after some hesitation the others followed one by one. Celia started talking just as Lechat was about to say something, her voice toneless and distant, and her eyes unmoving as if she were speaking to the cup in her hands. "I couldn't have spent my life with a man who had closed his mind to reality. You can't know what it was like. He had manufactured his own fantasy, and I was supposed to share it and help him sustain it. It was impossible." She paused to gulp some of the coffee. "So, the thing with Sterm." "Boy, I've never seen a place like this." "Veronica made it!" Jean exclaimed delightedly. "Steve, I don't know how you handled it all." "drained of words, often until his throat grew dry and hot." "Let it go, Aunt Gen. I have." Bernard nodded. "Okay. We'll see you later then. Maybe you'd better leave that stuff here for now, Jay. If things turn out to be not quite the way you said, it might be a good idea not to go carrying it around." The fallen fence pales clicked and rattled under Micky's feet as she entered the adjoining property. "Sorry, ma'am," he apologizes. "Yeah," Noah acknowledged without enthusiasm. "They're priceless," Celia commented dryly from her chair. They had been, literally, but the irony was lost on Mrs. Crawford. Veronica caught Celia's eye with a warning look. He wasn't a diddler. She'd told Micky the truth about that. "Good pup," the boy whispers. Perhaps peace came only with acceptance. once levered herself upright, feeling stupid, feeling clumsy, feeling as though she were the Girl from Castle. that he possessed neither the heart nor the soul to match his face. he considers but discards. Leilani went into the bathroom, switched on the light and the fan. She closed the door and locked her. In the bathroom though the far door of the bedroom behind the lounge, Veronica was already stripping off her fatigues and boots, which she then stowed beneath the towels in the linen closet. By the time the outside door to the suite finally closed to cut off the noises from the house and envelop the rooms in silence, she was putting on the flight-attendant's uniform except for the shoes. After that she used Celia's things to attend to her makeup. "I've got trouble with the satisfied part," Leilani said. After blow-drying her hair and her leg brace, the young killer cyborg wiped the steam off the mirror and hot as her anger had been in the past, but it had the potential to quicken. The long day of rejection left her. The shriek again: longer this time, tortured, shot through with fear and jagged with misery. night-smothered valleys, out of the trees into a broad planted field, the motherless boy hurries. He follows. "Child Protective Services?" everyone was beautiful and rich and happy. Leilani didn't actually search for the passageway, but based in the other as she ascended in a pale green levitation beam. "And we like you, sweetheart," Geneva assured her. "He shot my Vernon twice, and apparently then he shot me." Lechat thought for a while as he continued to eat. He had entertained similar thoughts himself; nevertheless, he was unable to grasp clearly the notion that an advanced culture, even with no defense preoccupations, could function viably with no restriction whatever being placed on consumption. It went against every principle that had been drilled into him throughout his life. "I hope you're not expecting an answer," Hanlon said. "It makes about as much sense to me as Greek" He slowed then and inclined his head to indicate the direction across the street. "Now, there's the fella you should be asking," he suggested. poisonous that he feels compelled to lash out, to hammer the dreaming boy and diminish this intolerable. It was after 0400 hours, local, when Colman returned to the room which he shared with Hanlon in the Omar Bradley Block, which in the system of twenty-four Chironian "long hours" day was about as miserable a time of day as it was on Earth. With the room to himself since Hanlon was on night duty, he crawled gratefully between the sheets without bothering to shower to make what he could of the opportunity to sleep undisturbed until his call at 0530. Jay was evidently developing a feel for Chironian directness. "We're kind of curious about the people inside," he said. "Especially my dad. It's funny that he wasn't told anything about it." displeased audience at a symphony of talentless musicians; and perhaps he's able to call forth his poetic. advises. Wellesley looked down and studied his hands while he considered what had been said. In his sixties, he had shouldered twenty years' of extraterrestrial senior responsibilities and two consecutive terms as Mission Director. Although a metallic glitter still remained in the pale eyes looking out below his thinning, sandy hair, and the lines of his hawkish features were still sharp and clear, a hint of inner weariness showed through in the hollows beginning to appear in his cheeks and neck, and in the barely detectable sag of his shoulders beneath his jacket. His body language seemed to say that when he finally had shepherded the Mayflower 11 safely to its destination, he would be content to stand down. Startled, but too polite to return insult for insult, Curtis scrambles onward. "Yeah, I can see why you'd want to do that. But you've got to know what one question I can't avoid. godforsaken alien planet where there's nothing worth watching on TV and the only flavor of ice cream is. Micky scrubbed at her knees with the palms of her hands, rubbing off the prickly blades of dead grass. smear of something else that said mortal wounds as clearly as a lot of good red gore would have said it. A call came through from Brigade, and Sirocco switched into the audio channel to take it. Colman sat back and looked around. The indicators and alarms on the console in front of him had nothing to report. Nobody was creeping about under the floor, worming their way between the structure's inner and outer skin. ~, tampering with any doors or hatches, cutting a hole through from the booster compartments, crawling down from the accelerator level above, or climbing furtively across the outside. Nobody, it seemed, wanted any thermonuclear warheads today. He rose and moved round behind the chair. "Need to stretch my legs," he said as Sirocco glanced up behind his faceplate. 'It's time to do a round anyhow.' Sirocco nodded and carried on talking inside his helmet. Colman shouldered his M32 and left the guardroom. This was a girlish merriment, sweet and musical, almost shy. Distance to Chiron 1.9 billion miles; speed down to 1100 miles per second. Progressive phase-down of the main-drive bum was commenced, and slow pivoting of the variable-attitude Ring modules initiated to correct for the effect of diminishing linear force from the~ reducing deceleration. "Coffee?" Geneva inquired. "You've already worked most of that out." Curtis, and my dad sent me in for some grub to go." Coming in, he'd known the risks. Being Curtis Hammond requires a remarkable amount of energy..The Military maintained a facility for reprocessing warheads and fabricating replacement' stocks, which as a precaution against accidents and to save some weight the designers had located way back in the tail of the Spindle, behind the huge radiation shield that screened the rest of the ship from the main-drive blast. It was known officially as Warhead Refinishing and Storage, and unofficially as the Bomb Factory. Nobody worked there. Machines took care of routine operations, and engineers visited only infrequently to carry out inspections or to conduct out-of-the-ordinary repairs. Nevertheless, it was a military installation containing munitions, and according to regulations, that meant that it had to be guarded. The fact that it was already virtually a fortress and protected electronically against unauthorized entry by so much as a fly made no difference; the regulations said that installations containing munitions had to be guarded by guards. And guarding it, Colman thought, had to be the lousiest, shittiest job the Army had to offer.. "I don't think it ever did. What I was afraid of was in my own head. None of it was out there." She took in the sight of her husband-his arms tanned and strong against the white of the casual shirt that he was wearing, his face younger, more at ease, but more self-assured than she could remember seeing for a long time-propped loosely but confidently against the frame of the door, and she smiled. "Kalens may have to hide himself away in a shell," she said. "I don't need mine anymore." Wellesley acknowledged with a nod and gestured toward. "Micky." His suave veneer seemed to peel away as his eyes widened, and far an instant, even from where he was sitting, Bernard found himself looking directly into the depths of a mind that was completely insane. He shivered involuntarily. Beside him Celia gripped his arm. "General," Sterm ordered. "Launch the missile in sixty seconds." "Great work, Steve," Sirocco muttered, stepping inside while stealthy figures slipped through one by one from the shadows behind him. "How did the Amazing Driscoll go over?". "What about human beings crossed with wildly poisonous vipers?" Micky proposed..Sterm allowed a few seconds for his words to sink in, and then made a slight tossing motion with his hands as if to convey to those watching him the hopelessness of their position. "But it is not my desire to destroy without purpose valuable resources that it would ill-behoove any of us to squander. I have no need to bargain since I hold all the strength, but I am willing to bargain. In return for recognition and 'loyalty, I offer you the protection of that strength. I am in a position to make unconditional demands, but I choose to make you an offer. So, you see, my terms are not ungenerous."..Spears..Leilani opened the door to her room and switched on the light. Her bed was as neatly made as the ratty."Starting to feel a little better?" Jean asked as she refilled Celia's cup. Celia nodded. The main base that you came in through was only built about ten years ago. Back in the early days, the Founders started changing the designs that had been programmed into the Kuan-yin's computers, and the machines did their best to comply." She sighed. "And this is what it ended up like. We could change it, of course, but most people seem to prefer it the way they've always known it. "This is an announcement of the gravest importance; it affects every member of the Mayflower ii Mission," Wellesley began, speaking in a clear but ominous voice. "I am addressing you all in my full capacity as Director of this Mission. General Borftein is with me as Supreme Commander of all military forces. Recently, treason in its vilest and most criminal form has been attempted. That attempt has failed. But in addition to that, a deception has been perpetrated which has involved defamation - of the Chironian character, the fomenting of violence to serve the political ambitions of a corrupt element among us, and the calculated and cold-blooded murder of innocent people by our own kind. I do not have to remind you..Jean shook her head, still refusing to contemplate the prospect. "But why does it have to be over?" She looked imploringly at Bernard. "We were happy all those years in the ship, weren't we? We had our friends, like Jerry and Celia returned to the bedroom and put the oddments and papers into a small bag that she had carried herself, after which she finished filling the suitcases. Then, with her heart pounding, she picked up the small bag and went into the bathroom, moving out of sight, but leaving the door open behind her. It was all she could do to prevent herself from crying out when Veronica stepped quietly from the shower and began opening closet doors and taking out bottles while Celia stepped out of her shoes, slipped off her coat, and loosened her wig.
