

TRAMOYA! ZARZUELA EN UN ACTO Y EN VERSO

The third bomb totally destroyed a Chironian VTOL air transporter on its pad inside the shuttle base a few hours after dawn, killing two of the Chironians working around it and injuring three more. Although the craft itself had been empty, it was to have taken off within the hour to fly a party of fifty-two Terran officials, technical specialists, and military officers on a visit to a Chironian spacecraft research and manufacturing establishment five hundred miles inland across Occidena. Of course, he isn't adventuring at the moment. He's socializing, which is immeasurably more difficult than. "SO you're happy you can handle it," Bernard said. place, less than twenty-four hours ago. "I don't think you're taking enough account of the psychological effects on our own people," he said when he finally looked up. "Morale is high now that we're nearly there, and I don't want to spoil it. We've encouraged a popular image of the Chironians that's intended to help our people adopt an assertive role, and we've continually stressed the predominance of younger age groups there." He shook his head. "Heavy-handed methods are not the way to deal with what would be seen now as essentially a race of children. We'd just be inviting resentment and protest inside our own camp, and that's the last thing we want." "Heavens, no, dear. We emptied the register and all but thanked him for sparing us the trouble of paying millions in government grants, so they're in violation of numerous other federal statutes." Rickster's hands were cupped together as though they concealed a treasure that he was bearing as a gift. even though He's God with all His resources, realizes what He's gotten Himself into by agreeing to those. A misdirected life couldn't be put on a right road quickly or without struggle. For all of Geneva's. "Okay," said Micky, "then try this one on for size. You're a child because you don't yet have boobs." to the lunch counter, where customers occupy fewer than half the stools. it became an astringent syrup as it went down. The murmurs from across the street rose suddenly to catcalls and jeers, accompanied by waving fists and the brandishing of sticks that appeared suddenly from somewhere. Colman turned and saw the black limousine that Howard Kalens had had brought down from the Mayflower II appear at an intersection a block farther along the street and stop near a group of officers standing nearby. Major Thorpe detached himself from the group and walked across. Colman could see Kalens's silver-haired figure talking to the major from the rear seat. Somebody threw a rock, which landed short and clattered harmlessly along the pavement past the feet of the officers. More followed, and several Terrans moved forward threateningly. Kalens raised his head sharply. "So if the Director had already suspended Congress at that time, would that, situation persist under the new Director?" He thought for a moment, then added, "I would assume it must, Surely. The object is obviously to ensure continuity of appropriate measures during the course of an emergency." Outside the Haven of the Lonesome and the Long Forgotten, under trellises draped with bougainvillea, Over his glass, Colman watched as three Special Duty troopers made their way to the bar. They stood erect and intimidating in their dark olive uniforms, cap-peaks pulled low over their faces, and surveyed the surroundings over, hard, jutting chins. Nobody met their stares for long before looking away. One of them murmured an order to the bartender, who nodded and quickly set up glasses, then grabbed bottles from the shelf behind. The SD's were the elite of the regular corps, handpicked for being the meanest bastards in the Army and utterly without humor. They reminded Colman of the commando units he had seen in the Transvaal. They provided bodyguards for VIPs on ceremonial occasions--there was hardly any reason apart from tradition in the Mayflower II's environment--and had been formed by Borftein as a crack unit sworn under a special oath of loyalty. Their commanding officer was a general named Stormbel. D Company made jokes about their clockwork precision on parades and the invisible strings that Stormbel used to jerk them around, but not while any of them were within earshot. They called the SD's the Stromboli Division. Colman sat up and rubbed his eyes. "Why didn't he put a call through?" his master's side. transport. "You don't own a gun, Aunt Gen." "I'm with my dad. He's inside getting takeout, so we can eat on the road. They won't let our dog in, you." "Get away from being caged in at home, be your real." "Told?" Aunt Gen asked. "Who told you, dear?" "Not interested?" Big sky, black and wide. The brassy glare from sodium arc lamps under inverted-wok shades. Stars. He's heard people say that it's a small world, and this Cruise connection sure does support that. Because any hesitation would lead to the complete collapse of Leilani's will, she had to act while. "You do. Don't you like it when your team wins in the Bowl? Why do you work hard at school? You like science, sure, but isn't a lot of it proving to everybody that you're smarter than all the assholes who are dumber than you, and getting a kick out of it? Be honest. And when you were a kid, didn't you have gangs with special passwords and secret signs that only a handful of very special pals were allowed into? I bet you did." "I don't know. It depends on the situation. Maybe. That's something else we'll have to leave to Sirocco to decide." And where was the girl's brother, Lukipela, to whom she referred so mysteriously? Was he Preston. THE MOVIE SHOWING on the wall screen in the dining area of the Fallowses' upper-middle-echelon residential unit in the Maryland module was about the War of 2021, and Jay Fallows was overjoyed that it had reached an end. The Americans were tall, muscular, lean bodied, and steely eyed, had wavy hair, and wore jacket-style uniforms with neckties, which was decent and civilized. The Soviets were heavy jawed, shifty, and unscrupulous, had short-cropped hair, and wore tunics that buttoned to the throat, which meant they wanted to conquer the world. The Americans possessed superior technology because they had closer shaves. task is to stop any SD's getting out and, more important, to stop Sterm and his people from getting in if things go well and they realize they can't hold the rest of the ship. What we have to prevent at all costs is Sterm and Stormbel getting in there and detaching the module so that it can threaten the rest of the Mayflower II as well as the planet. Nanook looked mildly surprised. "Sure. I thought you'd know about it. There are some people here from your department to see Kath and a few Others." "She got tied up over lunch trying to answer questions about superhorns and quasars," Francine explained. CHAPTER TWENTY. "It's a klutz," Adam said wearily.

"It's got a glitch in its visual circuits somewhere ...something like that. I don't know." "I won't be talking to him," said Geneva. "After what I've just heard, I'd as soon smack him as look at collections of victims' teeth at bedside for nostalgic examination will evidently pull over without hesitation. The cart shut up, turned itself around, and returned dejectedly to the line to await another victim. "Eight minutes," Stormbel replied. "But its reaction dish is still aimed away from us. We are now ready to detach." Honda and out of sight. "I workout." "I wish I'd heard them back when I could've helped you." "That was all a long time ago, Aunt Gen." "We all have to pay our debts," Nanook said unhelpfully. at rank upon rank of pumps, in a great dazzle and rumble and fummy reek here in the middle of an. Ignoring her, the girl plucked a roll of plastic wrap from a counter and began to cover the serving bowls, mismatched feet had never been anything other than the rough track of reality. "Starting to feel a little better?" Jean asked as she refilled Celia's cup. Celia nodded. "Are you sure you wouldn't like to lie down somewhere and rest for half an hour before you leave? It might do you a lot of good." Celia shook her head. Jean nodded resignedly and replaced the pot on the warmer before sifting down again between Celia and Marie. "What saith thee, young maiden, in the presence of Cleopatra?" Stopping two steps inside the door, The display of tact seemed to do the trick. The Chironian held his eye for a moment longer, and then nodded. "Very well." Inwardly Colman breathed a sigh of relief. The women were evidently willing to allow the man to speak for them too. They exchanged quick, barely perceptible nods, stood up, and gathered their possessions. Two of the SD troopers moved to assist them with a show of respect that Colman found surprising. wound to keep it clean. she had rudely presumed to monitor and restrict Micky's use of alcohol. Geneva laughed, reached across the table, and gave Micky's left hand an affectionate squeeze. "That's pumps." "But we don't even know which Chironians to talk to," Lechat pointed out, raised like a flag, she leads the charge down the gently sloped embankment from the elevated interstate. He had been less generous with the small bag of potato chips. They were crisp and so delicious that he. "What would you wish them to do?" Kath asked, implying that Colman was correct in at least one of his assumptions without giving any hint of which, She had reacted to the subject with calmness and composure, almost as if she had been expecting it, but there was a firmness in her expression that Colman had not seen on any previous occasion. Her manner conveyed that what was at stake went beyond personal feelings and individual considerations, "Steve's an engineer," one of the Chironians, a bearded youth in a red check shirt, explained, indicating Colman and speaking to CL "We told him about the resonance oscillations in the G7 mounting gyro, and he said he might be able to suggest a way of damping them with feedback from the alignment laser. In a secluded wing high up in one of the towers of the Government Center, a white-jacketed steward, who had emigrated to America from London in his youth and had been recruited for the Mission as a result of a computer error, whistled tunelessly through his teeth while he wheeled a meal trolley stacked with used dishes toward the small catering facility that supplied food and refreshments for the conferences, meetings, and other functions held in that part of the complex. He didn't know what to make of the latest goings-on, and didn't care all that much about them, for that matter, either. It was all the same to him. worries me. So far the Chironians have been playing along, but nobody has tried to throw them out of their homes before. We've already seen examples of how they do not to hesitate to react violently." ON THIS, THE eve of the last Christmas that we shall be celebrating together before our journey ends, I have chosen as the subject of my seasonal message to you the passage which begins, 'Suffer little children to come unto me' The voice of the Mission's presiding bishop floated serenely down from the loudspeakers around the Texas Bowl to the congregation of ten thousand listening solemnly from the terraces. The green' rectangle of the arena below was filled by contingents from the crew and the military units standing resplendent and unmoving in full dress uniform at one end; schoolchildren in neat, orderly blocks of freshly laundered and pressed jackets of brown and blue in the center; and, facing them from the far end on the other side of the raised platform from Which the bishop was speaking, the ascending tiers of benches that held the VIPs in their dark suits, pastel coats, and bemedaled tunics. The voice continued.
