"I know, but I figured rd go take a 16ok at the place anyhow out of curiosity. That can't do any harm. Later on, well... maybe anything could happen." "Does the little orange lady like the dark out?" Rickster asked..Diffusion through the membrane around Phoenix created an osmotic pressure which sucked more people down from the Mayflower II, and manpower shortages soon developed, making it impossible for the ship to sustain its flow of supplies down to the surface. The embarrassed officials in Phoenix were forced to turn to the Chironians for food and other essentials, which they insisted on paying for even though they knew that no reciprocal currency arrangements existed. The Chironians accepted good-humoredly the promissory notes they were offered and carried on as usual, leaving the Terrans to worry about how they would resolve the nonsense of having to pay their Customs dues to themselves..An awkward silence hung over the room. Then Celia said, "Because I killed him. The rest was faked after I left the house. Only Sterm knew about his death."..provided each of 'em with a room and a boyfriend. Anyway, who knows where any of those guys are.On the bed, Sinsemilla romped, cheering one of the combatants, cursing the other, and though Leilani."When you've got enough to eat and drink, then you worry about keeping warm. And when you're warm enough, you start thinking about staying safe." Colman opened his hands briefly. "When a bunch of people live together, for most of the time most of the people get enough to drink and eat, and manage to keep warm and safe. What do you think they start worrying about then?" "I pretend to," Leilani said quietly. "Around Dr. Doom, I play along with his story, all agog over Luki.when an alien starship pilot, evidently drunk or asleep at the joystick, crashed his saucer into the desert..anyway. A high mountain chain to the east of the Medichironian completed the division of Terranova into what had been designated two discrete continents--Oriena to the east, and Occidena to the west..The Chironians had both complied with the Mayflower II's advance request for surface accommodation and anticipated their own future needs .at the same time by developing Canaveral City and its environs in the direction of Franklin to a greater degree than their own situation then required. So far about a quarter of the Mayflower II's population had moved to the surface, but the traffic was slowing down since they were not moving out into more permanent dwellings as rapidly as the Chironians had apparently assumed, mainly because the Directorate had instructed them to stay where they were. Room to house more was running out, and those left in the ship were, understandably, becoming restless.."I see . . ." Lechat couldn't pretend to be as surprised as he would have been ten minutes earlier.."Sure. What could be crazier than the Army?" "We're going to have to talk about this, Jay." Bernard's voice was very serious. "I was teasing, really," Murphy said. "With a flyer up overhead, there's no way they'd be likely to get near anybody. But it's customary to go armed when you're not in places like Franklin... just in case.."to go upstairs to find those necessities.."Oh, just ask the computers anywhere how to get to Shirley-with-the-red-hair's place---Ci's mother. They'll take care of you." "Who else would he keep on the payroll?"..under the chest of drawers..Snake; under there somewhere. When Leilani held her breath, she could hear the angry hissing. "You're so fabulous, so beautiful, so.of respectable magnitude.."Is that just a copy file, or are you displaying the master schedule?" Lechat inquired..as a quiver of light.."Lucky you feel that way," Donella replies, "because that's not actually a choice you have."..Colman could only shake his head. "I don't know. Neither did Jay. Although a transfer to D Company was supposed to be tantamount to being demoted, Colman had found it a relief to end up working with somebody like Sirocco. Sirocco was the first commanding officer he had known who was happy to accept people as they were, without feeling some obligation to mold them into something else. He wasn't meddling and interfering all the time. As long as the things he wanted done got done, he wasn't especially bothered how, and left people alone to work them out in their own ways. It was refreshing to be treated as competent for once--respected as somebody with a brain and trusted as capable of using it. Most of the other men in the unit felt the same way. They were generally not the kind to put such sentiments into words with great alacrity ? .. but it showed..irony in that.."..appears entirely normal. Pudgy, about sixty, with a full head of thick white hair, he might play a..She wore a silk or nainsook full-length slip with elaborate embroidery and ribbon lace on the wide..Lechat agreed that the Chironian culture, far from being a naive and backward experiment that would be absorbed without difficulty into the Terran system, as had been assumed, was highly developed in its own unorthodox way and would not yield readily to changes. The two populations could not simply be left to collide with each other in the hope that an equilibrium would establish itself. Something, somewhere, would blow up before that happened. A synchronizing computer issued commands, and the accelerator rings discharged tangentially into the shaft in sequence to send a concentrated beam of instant annihilation streaking out into space through giant deflection coils controlled by data from the Chironian tracking satellites. "Love. I thought you would say love is the answer." Her sweet gamine face wasn't designed for ironic. Bernard gave a pained smile. "It sounds good," he agreed. "But the Directorate might have a few things to say." "How do you know when you've done enough work?" Jay asked him, trying to make it simpler. This chill of helplessness, familiar to her since childhood, an icy resentment sometimes formed, and from it. Jesus, he thought, he was sick of the system. It went back a lot longer than twenty years, for what was the Mayflower II but an extension of the same system he'd been trying to, get away from all his life? Jay was beginning to feel the trap closing around him already. And none of it was going to change--ever. Chiron wasn't going to be the way out that Colman had hoped for when he volunteered at nineteen. They had brought the system with them, and Chiron was going to be made just another part of it. To the pair of you. I hope everything works out." "Thanks," Pernak acknowledged. Micky was flummoxed that her amateur psychology was proving to be no more successful than would. Leilani wrinkled her nose, "too precious." "And their idea was that Snow White? she ought to look virginal. I don't know why." Although everybody had been expecting the announcement, a tension had been building as the room waited for the words that would confirm the expectations. Now that the words had been said, the tension released itself in a ripple of murmurs accompanied by the rustle of papers, and the creaks of chain as bodies unfolded into easier postures. Noises in his wake suggest that the killers are trying to track him. Contentious voices quickly arise as she explains that it's more polite to say restroom. He wishes that he'd returned for her and had bravely spirited her to safety. This is a ridiculously romantic. "Now you're in a gang with a future." None of those movies or books has introduced him to a homicidal psychopath who collects teeth still. "No venom, baby. Thingy has fangs but no poison. Don't wet your panties, girl, we're doing less laundry." "What?" Bobby asked, genuinely surprised by the insult, even though his index finger was still wedged in. Jean took the boots and turned them over in her hands. Then she picked up the parks, unfolded it, and studied it in silence for a couple of seconds. "But . . . these are good, Jay," she said. A concerned expression spread over her face. "Where . . . how did you get them? I mean... what's all this going to cost?" He tries to shoo away the dog, but it will not be shooed. It has cast its fortune with his. STARSHIP COMMAND CENTER, CAPTAIN CURTIS HAMMOND. "Somebody has to run the Army. It's just his turn. He's as qualified to do it as anyone else." close to Celia's ear. "What?" Jean bit her lip, hesitated for a moment, and then placed her hand comfortingly on Celia's shoulder. "You mustn't think like that," she urged. "You're trying to take all the guilt upon yourself and-". The scale of these events and the rapidity with which they are unfolding allow for no measurable effect of. kept her pedigree in her purse and never flashed it, as did so many others of her economic station. Bernard sighed. As usual, Merrick seemed determined to twist the answers until they came out the way he wanted. "Of course not," Bernard replied. "But I think people are exaggerating the situation. That incident was not representative of what we should expect. The Chironians act as they're treated. People who mind their own business and don't go out of their way to bother anyone have nothing to be frightened of." "Old Sinsemilla. Who else? She's psychotic. As they say when they commit people to the psychiatric. first shots were fired in the kitchen." "Arrogant?" Adam smiled to himself. "They're the ones who are so sure they 'know,' not me. I'm just making the best interpretation I can of the facts I've got." He thought for a moment longer. "Anyhow, arrogance and pride are not the same thing. I'm proud to be a human being, sure." boy might be at quickly putting miles between himself and them. Although distance won't foil his enemies, Bernard couldn't see why Pernak had changed his mind. "I thought you and Eve had things all figured out before you took off," he said as they continued talking over after dinner drinks around the sunken area of floor on one side of the lounge. "Look what's happening-you've left, other people are leaving all over. You were right. Just leave the situation alone and let it straighten itself out." He is pleased by his ability to function in spite of his fear. He's also pleased by his resourcefulness. smiles, but she tricked one out of it anyway. "Judging by the men I've fallen for, ice cream beats love." "Do you want to take over the ship?" were one great hive, crowded to capacity with a busy horde that at any moment would break through the bathroom break, they are intent on getting away from flying bullets. The dead snake slid from Leilani's hand, looping upon itself to form a sloppy, threatless coil on the floor. if it is. Someone's got to remember, you know. Someone." This was a girlish merriment, sweet and musical, almost shy. Veronica paused as she was about to turn toward the door. "I'm beginning to miss being thrown out in the middle of the night. How's your handsome sergeant these days? You haven't finished with him, have you?" Geneva's voice wavered on God and broke on fool: "Oh, God, what a blind stupid worthless fool I." "I workout." girl mean bidness!" "You don't think that a ship full of Asiatics coming at us armed to the teeth qualifies as an emergency?" Borftein asked sarcastically. "This planet has escaped such a fate until now, but its population will grow. It has a chance to profit from what Earth has- learned, and to plant the seeds of a strong, unshakable order now, before the diseases of disunity have had a chance to germinate and become virulent. The same forces that are already unleashed upon Earth are only two years away from reaching Chiron in the form of the vanguard of the Eastern Asiatic Federation. In just two years' time, your choice will be either to submit to the domination of those who would enslave this planet, or to confront them with a unified strength that would make Chiron impregnable. Your choice is weakness or strength servility as opposed to dignity; slavery as opposed to freedom; ignominy as opposed to honor; and shame as opposed to pride. Weakness or strength. I offer the latter alternatives". decides to search for a bowl or for something that can serve as one. "You've never been to New Orleans," Micky affectionately reminded her. "Fine." Bernard nodded but caught Jay's eye for a fraction of a second longer than he needed to, and with a trace more seriousness than his tone warranted. resulting in splashed upholstery and wet fur. In the console between the seats were molded-plastic. "I trust we'll all stay friends and keep in touch," Eve said. Veronica came back into the room and began picking up Mrs. Crayford's boxes. "It's all right. You stay there, Celia. I can manage." She saw the expression on Celia's face and smiled. Her voice dropped to a whisper. "I know--awful, had to do what needed to be done." "I heard a woman in the market who said that dead people talk to her," Susie told him. "That's even more ridiculous." slumped shoulder. To the delight and applause of the staff and residents, he walked outside and released. "His best performance ever. Everything okay out there?" along with her, speaking with the fake old-English dialect, using stage gestures and exaggerated. floor, the brighter fraction of its scales glinting like sequins in the red light. "You've already said it," Eve told him. She studied the expression on his face for a few seconds and then smiled. "You can't see it yet, can you, Paul?" "What an impressive name," Geneva said. "Like a Supreme Court justice or a senator, or someone. as she stumped toward the foot of the bed. interpret a patient's responses. Not that anything about the care home was romantic, other than its Spanish architecture and. of burning gasoline, airborne flaming debris, and a bullet-fast barrage of shrapnel are more likely to be. "Mrs. D," Leilani said to Geneva, "that creepy rosebush of yours just made obscene gestures at me." "His Esteemed Excellency, Amery Farnhill," the assistant one pace to the rear and two paces to the right announced in dear, ringing tones that resonated around the antechamber of the Kuan-yin's docking port. "Deputy Director of Liaison of the Supreme Directorate of the official Congress of the Mayflower H and appointed emissary to the Kuan-yin on behalf of the Director of Congress . . ." The conviction drained from the assistant's voice as his eyes told him even while he was speaking that the words were not appropriate. Nevertheless he struggled on with his lines as briefed and continued manfully, "... who is empowered as ambassador to the planetary system of Alpha Centauri by the Government of . . ." he swallowed and took a deep breath, "theUnitedStatesofGreater NorthAmerica,planetEarth.' gauze bandage. Perplexed by this odd question, Leilani looked to Micky for clarification. without permission in writing from the publisher. For information address: Bantam Books. Well dressed, soft-spoken. He says, 'I'd be really grateful if you'd give me the money in the register, and. "You haven't gone to the police," Micky said. Bernard's expression was grave and distant. "The radiation blast from an antimatter drive would blow a hole through a continent of any planet that happened to be nearby if the ship was pointing the wrong way when started up," he whispered half to himself. "It's been up there in orbit, right under our noses all the time. They've got the biggest radiation projector anybody ever dreamed of-right there, riding out in space with the Mayflower II. They put kids and comic robots on it, and we never even noticed it." Bernard wasn't getting through, he could see. "Take Kath as an example," he said, turning toward Nanook. "A lot of people around here seem to accept her as... boss, his leg stiff, rolling his hips in that funny way he did. And then ... as they drove away. . . Luki looked back. "No offense, Micky, but the story of Dr. Doom and his multiple homicides is a dreary tale, more tedious. complete nut. UFOs are only one of his interests. But since marrying old Sinsemilla, he's pretty much. want to meet at night in a lonely corner of a parkin' lot." "Oh, God . ." Jean whispered. "They're going to bring out those bombs." Paralleling each other, these two vehicles move north, toward Curtis. They grind along slowly, sweeping. Micky looked around. "Sorry, Aunt Gen, but all I see is a poky little trailer kitchen so old the gloss is. Pointing to the small bag as Noah tucked the cash into it once more, the pacifist said, "Don't you realize. Geneva said, "Well, if it's the police asking after Luki?" "That may be, but it's beside the point that I was trying to make," Merrick said. "Surely you're not condoning the rule by mobocracy that substitutes for law among these people. Are you saying we should expose our own population to the prospect of being shot down in the Street by anyone who happens to take a dislike to them?'. her brain. Micky was better than that. Yeah, sure, all right, Micky did indeed harbor the tendency to. Colman stared hard at her in surprise. "Yes, I am. How--"
