It was raining on the low beaches of the river mouth, the fine, cold, dismal drizzle of that grey winter. His clothes were soaked. He hunched his shoulders, turned about, and set off towards a wisp of chimney smoke he saw far down the shore. Behind him were the tracks of an otter's four feet coming up from the water and the tracks of a man's two feet going away from it.."My people, the Kargs, they worship gods. Twin gods, brothers. At last he said he must go on, and the children drifted away as he folded up his pack..in their midst.
